

TO: Users of (formerly) Volunteer Center of the East Bay Website
FROM: Contra Costa Crisis Center
RE: Nonprofit Volunteer Opportunity Postings

Volunteer Match: www.volunteermatch.org
 Craigslist: <https://sfbay.craigslist.org/search/sfc/vol>
 Idealist: http://www.idealists.org/search/v2/?search_type=volop
 Hands On Bay Area: <https://www.handsonbayarea.org/>
 LinkedIn for Good: <https://linkedinforgood.linkedin.com/>
 Corporation for National and Community Service: <http://www.nationalservice.gov/>
 NextDoor: <https://nextdoor.com>
 MeetUp: <https://meetup.com>
 Patch: <https://patch.com>

For Contra Costa County agencies interested in posting volunteer opportunities, you may contact the Contra Costa Crisis Center's Database Manager, Blanca Gutierrez at blancag@crisis-center.org to determine if your volunteer opportunity may be added to our 211 database. This is free of charge.

For individuals or companies interested in identifying potential volunteer opportunities to give of your time, call 211 and ask for “volunteer opportunities”. Our 211 telephone response is available 24/7 as is our database, www.211database.org.

The Contra Costa Crisis Center services and website functions remain the same. If you have questions contact Contra Costa Crisis Center Executive Director, Rhonda James, at rhondaj@crisis-center.org.

Regarding Corporate Caring Volunteer Week scheduled for September 18-24, 2017:
Alameda County and Contra Costa County agencies visit:
<http://www.crisis-center.org/programs/volunteer-center-projects/corporate-caring-volunteer-week-2/>

Businesses interested in Corporate Caring Volunteer Week may contact us to inquire about participation in 2017 at: CorporateCaringVolunteerWeek@crisis-center.org

Rhonda James, Executive Director, Contra Costa Crisis Center